Paradise Diving has an offer for you..
“Come Dive at the Gold Coast Aquatic Centre,
Southport—the brand new Commonwealth Games
Facility for 2018, on your Sports afternoon”

The Paradise Diving Club located at the refurbished Gold Coast Aquatic Centre, Southport, Commonwealth Games facility for 2018, has been established since 1998. The Club boasts quality training facilities and has hosted National and International Training Camps and competitions.

Kevin Hall is the Head Coach and is accredited Australian Level 2. He is also a Level 6 Australian judge as well as an International Australian representative for FINA. Kevin is a Queensland State Selector and has been the Queensland Technical Officials Coordinator for 7 years.

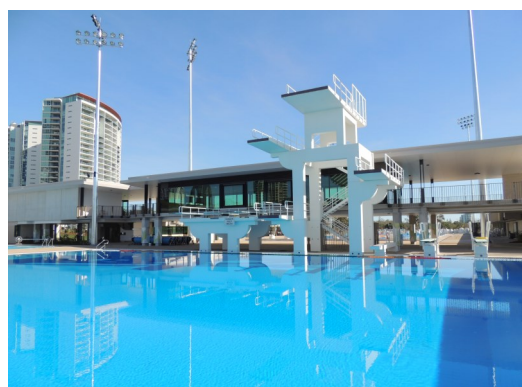

PDC has used the combined experience of their coaches and put together the following package to be utilised by Schools in the Gold Coast area.

The classes will consist of:

- Warm-up/strength
- Trampoline/dryland skills
- Springboard & Platform basics

Cost to you...

$235 per hour per lesson
accommodating up to 35 students +
$6 per head for each student over
35 participants.
